

Mothers for Clean Air Annual Report
June 2002 – May 2003
Board and Staff

Mission statement: To educate ourselves and the public concerning Houston-Galveston air quality and its effects on health, to encourage participation in learning about air quality, to do what we can as a community to prevent air pollution and reduce exposure, particularly of children.

Board of Directors and Officers

Nancy Stone, J.D., M.P.H., President
Attorney and health care professional, Visiting Nurse Association of Houston, Inc.

Jean Hampton, Ph.D., Vice President
Assistant Professor, College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, Texas Southern University

Jane Elioseff, Treasurer and Founding Board Member
Freelance writer and editor
Projects Coordinator for Galveston-Houston Association for Smog Prevention

Winnie Hamilton, Ph.D., S.M., Founding Board Member
Assistant Professor, Department of Neurosurgery and the Chronic Disease Prevention and Research Control Center, Baylor College of Medicine

Polly Ledvina, Ph.D., M.S.
Freelance urban design consultant

Janice Harper, Ph.D., M.A.
Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Houston

Giovanna Phillips, M.A.
Mediator

Staff

Jane Laping, M.S., M.P.H., Executive Director
First president and former field organizer and community organizer of Mothers for Clean Air.